

Auditions & Technical Crew Sign-ups For Camelot

Production Dates: July 11, 12, 13, 18, 19, 20, 2014

Theatre de Jeunesse is a local theatre arts program offered free of charge to Mid-Ohio Valley high school and early college aged young adults.

The Tony award-winning story of the marriage of England's King Arthur to Guenevere is played out amid the pageantry of Camelot. The show opens with King Arthur nervously preparing to meet his new Queen, Guenevere. While initially, Guenevere tries to escape the marriage, the two young people soon fall in love, to the pleasure of Arthur's wise tutor, Merlyn. In order to bring peace and stability to the kingdom, Arthur establishes the Knights of the Round Table who would use their might for right. Included amongst these knights, is the most famous of them all, Lancelot. Soon, Lancelot and Queen Guenevere fall in love. Their affair is brought public with the help of Arthur's evil illegitimate son Mordred and his aunt, the sorceress Morgan le Fey. As a result, peace ends and war breaks out as Arthur's troops prepare to fight Lancelot's French army.

The technical crew will assist the Technical Director in the design and creation of the set, props, lights, and sound for the production. They will also provide the backstage and light rail support for the production as: stage crew, stage manager, assistant stage manager, and lightboard, sound, and followspot operators. Students can intern with Director, Music Director, Choreographer. Costume interns will assist the Costumers in the research, design, and construction of costumes.
